PALMER CHEERED BY THOUSANDS IN TOUR OF STATE

Great Audience Applauds Exposure of Penrose's Record at Allentown. Candidate in Cumberland Valley Today.

ALLENTOWN, Pa., Oct. 29.—Congressman A. Mitchell Palmer, Democratic candidate for Senator, left here to tour the Cumberland Valley. He will address meetings at Mechanicsburg, Carlisle, Newville, Shippensburg and Greencastle during the day. Night meetings will be held at Waynesboro and Chambersburg.

More than 2000 persons heard the candidates speak here last night. Mr. Palmer was received with enthusiasm when he appeared on the platform of the Mealey Auditorium. In attacking Penrose, Congressman Palmer said, although the senior Senator from Pennsylvania is now and always has been vociferous about saving the nation from the hands of its political enemies, he has never written or intro-duced a single bill that would hand down his name to posterity.

Mr. Palmer said that Senator Penrose's

Mr. Painer said that Senator Penrose's calamity howlings on the ground that the Underwood tariff would bring ruin to the country were a "delusion and a snare." This was received with loud cheering by Republicans and Progressives in the audience.

Reviewing Senator Penrose's record as n legislator, Congressman Palmer proved that in the course of his 30 years' career Senator Penrose has never introduced or succeeded in getting passed any important

"My course in Congress is an open book," said Mr. Palmer, "Penrose has told my friends in Northampton County that I betrayed them and their industries by my support of the Democratic tariff. know that great industries there are busy and I know my people. The answer Penrose is that my people have returned me to Congress with a greater majority

Washington party leaders in Lehigh County admit that there is a strong senti-ment in their ranks for Mr. Palmer. Doctor Brumbaugh is also a favorite with many Washington party members who are displeased with the surrender of the Progressives to the Democrats in the in-dorsement of Mr. McCormick.

COLLEGE MEN FOR PALMER IN ACTIVE CAMPAIGN

League Sends Literature Broadcast Denouncing Penrose's Candidacy. SCRANTON, Pa., Oct. 29 .- "Clean house

in Pennsylvania, and keep it clean. All real men want good and clean government. College men especially know what good government means, and to use it, will take the support of every independent voter in the State. Every man who is opposed to the present wasteful and purely machine form of government in this State—a government by professional politicians for their own benefit—is hereby asked to unite with other real men in the coming election to support the candidates for Senator and Governor of this State who are strongest and therefore best able to defeat the present political

The foregoing is contained in the circulars which have been sent broadcast throughout the State to college men by the Palmer-McCormick College Men's League of Northwestern Pennsylvania, with headquarters in this city. The College Men's League here has been untiring in its efforts to secure betby Huge Jennings, manager of the De-troit American League baseball team, who practices law in this city; Henry Belin, Jr., a vice president of the E. I. du Pont Powder Company, and other well-known Scranton residents, the com-mittee in charge of the college men's campaign for better government has appealed directly to practically every clege man in this section of the State.

The circular reads in part: "This is no time to be misled by falla-clous arguments, such as the representa-tion of Penrose as the 'champion of American industry' and the 'apostle of American industry is in no danger of suffering from foreign competition for many years to come, as any thinking man must admit, and this cry only raised to obscure the real issue, and that is, whether the machine rule is to continue throughout this State or whether its people as a whole are at last to have real representation."

CHESTER COUNTY IGNORES PENROSE IN RECEPTION PLAN

Brumbaugh to be Entertained in West Chester. WEST CHESTER, Pa., Oct. 29.-Doctor

WEST CHESTER, Pa., Oct. 29.—Doctor Brumbaugh will visit this town next Saturday night, and an incident of his entertainment will be a reception by T. Larry Eyre at his home, "Eyreview." The most conspicuous feature of the coming event in the minds of West Chester Republicans and of the party followers throughout this section of Chester County is the absence of Schatter County is the absence of Schatter County in the posters and of the party followers throughout this section of Chester County is the absence of Schatter County in the content of the posters abnouncing it. The omission is highly announcing it. The omission is highly satisfying to the great majority of the ownspeople interested in Doctor Brum-baugh's candidacy for Governor. Republicans will be present from every part of the county and they will be of the kind that will give Brumbaugh the the kind that will give Brumbaugh their whole-hearted support on election day. Penrose's following in Chester County is growing less as the campaign draws to a close. In the borough of Coatesville the opposition is so pronounced that bets are being offered that he will not receive one-third of the Republican vote. In the western section of the county the same spirit exists. In sharp contrast with this is the fact that careful canvassing of reliable men throughout the county shows that Doctor Brumbaugh's strength is growing daily, and that the vote for him will be such as carry with it the deep sense of regard and confidence which the people impose in him.

REGISTRATION FIGURES SHOW GREAT REPUBLICAN GAIN

Vote Increased 445,059 Over 1912 and 36,934 Over Spring Enrolment. Republican and Prohibition parties are he only ones to show a gain over 1912, acording to registration figures given out oday by the Republican State Committee. These show that the Republican gain is 445,059 over the 1912 vote and 36,934 over the enrolment made last spring.

The Prohibitionists gained 1403 since ast spring, the table sets forth. The Washington party, with a total registra-tion of 74,168, is shown to have lost 370,726 since 1912. Its enrolment last spring was 14,611.

The Democrats lost 35,802 since 1912, and .782 since the spring enrolment, the Re-ublican figures show. Socialist losses since last spring were 2014. In eight counties the spring enrollment figures were used for purposes of comparison with the 1912 vote, as it was impossible to get figures for the registration. These counties are Cambria, Chester, Eric, Lebanon, Mercer, Pike, Union and York, six of which are normally Republican. The Washington party is known as the Bull Moose" party and it has enrolled 4214 under that name, which increases the Washington party figures to about

Let Physicians Administer, The removal of an injured boy from the Medico-Chimerical Hespital by his mother before physicians had treated him was severely consured by Magistrate Tracy today in the 15th and Vine streets police station. At the same time the Magistrate held in 5500 ball for further heaving John T. Hoydy, 2522 North Sath treet, who was operating a motorcar, which struck the lad.

The injured boy is John Adanzinck, 8 years old, 241 North 23d street. He was knocked down at 23d and Race streets ast night. Because the child cried when taken to the hospital his mother refused to permit physicians to dress incerations in his scalp and took him home. The boy's father admitted today no physician had been called to attend to his son.

Candidate Will Declare His Principles and Platform to Philadelphians at Academy of Music Meeting.

The Republican rally in the Academy of Music tonight will be the culminating event in the campaign of Dr. Martin G. Brumbaugh for Governor.

William T. Tilden, president of the Union League, will preside at the meeting. A parade of the Republican supporters will be held on Broad street prior to the meeting, at which addresses are to be made by candidates for State offices and Congress.

The principal address will be made by tor Brumbaugh, who will review the principles and platform on which he bases his fight for the Governorship.

Other speakers will be ex-Governor Ed-win S. Stuart, Dimner Beeber, chairman of the Brumbaugh Citizens' Committee; General Thomas J. Stewart, Representa-tive J. Hampton Moore, ex-Attorney General of Pennsylvania Hampton L. Car-son, Representative George S. Graham, Frank B. McClain, nominee for Lieutenant Governor; Henry Houck, nominee for Secretary of Internal Affairs; John R. K. Scott, nominee for Representative-atlarge, and Senator Penrose.

PENROSE'S ROCKY ROAD IN PITTSBURGH

Oliver Men's Support Is Weak. PITTSBURGH, Oct. 28.—Wonder is expressed here that the followers of former Mayor William A. Magee are not more enthusiastic in their support of Penrose, and open charges are being made that Magee would be glad to see Penrose lose, just to let the Oliver people see that they are not supreme in Allegheny County. The Oliver faction has been going along in this campaign ignoring the supporters of the former Mayor, and consequently there is little unanimity of effort for the

Magee Faction Indiferent and Even

Republican ticket.

"We will win without the Magee people," declared the McAfee-Oliver-Bigelow-Armstrong combination; but they now realize that they are not able to cope with the combined efforts of the Demo-crats and the Washington party, and are crying out for help from Magee.

But it now appears that even the Oll-ver people are not putting their whole heart into the fight for Penrose. It hasn't been so many years since Oliver cupported the Democratic candidate for City Controller and the fusion candidate for Mayor. And when he was rid of for Mayor. And when he was rid of those he didn't like the junior Senator again became a Republican. For years, in fact since Oliver has been a Senator, he has been abused b close to him declare that Oliver's chance to get rid of Penrose will come next Tues-day, and it is freely predicted that Mr. Penrose may have a rude awakening next Wednesday morning.

The big men of the Magee faction are "too busy with business" affairs to take active part in the campaign, although they were just as much engrossed in business when they worked tooth and nail to elect John K. Tener Governor. With the Magee faction not moving one way or the other, and the attitude of the Oliver forces in doubt, although they have full charge of the campaign, the outlook for Penrose is anything but enouraging.

If Penrose wins one legislative district outside the city, those who are offering 2 to 1 on this proposition will be sur-prised. Those who wager on elections are betting 2 to 1 that Penrose loses the county outside the city, and even money that his majority in the county will be less than 5000.

There isn't a candidate for the Legis-lature or State Senator that is game enough to speak for Penrose, and, fear-ing the fusion movement, they are willing to trade any candidate to save them-

While the sergeant was questioning witnesses. Doctors Ewing and Stolper were sighted in a large yellow touring car. The crowd shouted, "Here they come back," and Sergeant Leonard made an attempt to halt the approaching car. The physicians refused to stop, the police say, and drove their car at greater speed. Leonard impressed a passing automobile into service and followed the yellow car.

The two doctors were halted at the up-per end of Belmont avenue near City Line after an exciting chase through the Fark, during which Sargeant Leonard Bred several shots from his revolver. At the police station today they proved they were not in the neighborhood of 38th street and Girard avenue when young Croll was killed. A stop was not made when Leonard at first attempted to halt their car, they said, because the

BRUMBAUGH WARMLY GREETED BY VOTERS OF DAUPHIN COUNTY

Home of His Fusion Opponent Receives the Republican Candidate for Governor With Enthusiasm.

FROM A STAFF CORRESPONDENT. HERSHEY, Pa., Oct. 29.—Dauphin County, the home of Vance C. McCormick, fusion nominee for Governor, this morning gave its warmest welcome to Dr. Martin G. Brumbaugh. Men of all political creeds assured Doctor Brumbaugh today that he would carry the county by a fair majority.

Speaking to the employes of the Hershey chocolate factory here, Doctor Brumbaugh paid a high tribute to Milton Hershey, owner of the factories, for his efforts to aid his employes socially, mentally and morally. When the importance of co-operation between brain, capital and toll is understood in all parts of the State as it is here, Pennsylvania will be a different place for the workingmen, said Doctor Brumbaugh. At Highspire Doctor Brumbaugh was introduced to the employes of the Pennsylvania Steel Company by G. S. Vickery. superintendent of the company. Doctor Brumbaugh laid special emphasis upon the need for remedial legislation to aid the laboring men. Workingmen's compensation law, shorter hours for women workers and better child labor regulations, he said, were the important points in his program for labor legislation.

The public schools at Middletown adourned to pay honor to Doctor Brumbaugh, the educator, forgetting politics for a time. The Republican nominee for Governer told the school children of his own work for the schools of Pennsylvania and also what he further hopes to achieve when elected Governor. Fourteen towns through the southern part of Dauphin County will be covered by Doctor Brumbaugh in the course of a 75-mile automobile trip today, returning to Harrisburg about 3 o'clock. This afternoon he will leave for Philadelphia to address the Republican rally and mass meeting in the Academy of Music. Doctor Brumbaugh expressed his intention of making there a further reply to the attacks which Colonel Roosevelt has been making upon him. "While I do not intend to deal in per-sonalities," he said, "I certainly resist misrepresentation of facts, and such

Hundreds of workingmen from the iron and steel mills at Steelton heard Doctor Brumbaugh declare that one of his most solemn obligations, when elected Governor, would be to secure the passage of legislation directly benefiting the laboring man. A workingman's compensa-fion act, better child-labor laws and different regulations for the hours of wo-men workers were included in the program of remedial legislation outlined by Doctor Brumbaugh.
